It will need to be posted again, then police have authority to tow. She then asked about parking on sidewalks and the legality. No, you cannot park on sidewalks. Jon suggested she call the non-emergency number when she sees this occurring. She then asked if Officer Pennington found the homeless man or if he found a home. Officer Pennington was unable to locate. We do try to find someone a place to go in these cases.

Mayor Dobosh said Emily also talked with him about police presence. It was explained officers work 10 hours in a 24-hour period and Randy fills in when he can on weekends. There is only one officer per day working 10 and on call 14, except for Thursdays and when Randy comes out.
